Courses

Kings North GC - For over twenty-five years, the North Course at Myrtle Beach National has been one of the most requested and best recognized course on the Beach. The par-3, 3rd hole with its island green and SC-shaped sand traps is the signature hole for all of Myrtle Beach. In 1996, Arnold Palmer and the Palmer Design Group returned to Myrtle Beach National and transformed the North Course into a brand new course --- one of the most visually exciting and challenging courses in America. Voted "Course of the Year" and a Golf Digest "Top 10 New Course".

River Club GC - The semi-private River Club has proven to be one of the most challenging course in the Myrtle Beach area. This Tom Jackson signature course is one of the premier "plantation" courses and a favorite among returning golfers.

Litchfield GC - Among the initial eight courses built on the Grand Strand and ranked as one of the "World's 50 Best" by Conde Nast Traveler. The gracious charms of this exclusive country club "signature course" are enjoyed by a limited number of visiting golfers. The mature tree-lined fairways wind amid giant oaks and shimmering lakes of a former Carolina rice plantation, creating an extraordinarily challenging "country club" experience. This traditionally styled layout is the flagship of the historic plantation courses.

Willbrook GC - Carved from the site of two Carolina plantations, Willbrook Plantation Golf Club is considered to be one of the best designs from noted architect Dan Maples. Located on the south end of the Grand Strand, Willbrook winds its way amid a centuries-old oak forest where nature abounds. It was recently featured on the award-winning television show "Nature Scene" for its peaceful coexistence of golfers and nature.

Waterway Hills GC - Waterway Hills Golf Club is a "signature course" designed by Robert Trent Jones and one of only 2 RTJ designs at the beach. The layout is "classic" Jones, with strategic landing area's crowned greens and superb bunkering. When the enclosed gondola whisks you across the Intracoastal Waterway, you'll find 27 superbly maintained holes, set amid woodlands and lakes in tranquil seclusion. Waterway Hills offers a traditional design with a rolling terrain and strategically placed bunkers.

International World Tour Golf Links - Inspired by the greatest courses in the world, the International World Tour Golf Links is the stuff golfing dreams are made of. Now you can experience the thrill of playing replica holes inspired by some of the world's most famous layouts; Pine Valley, Augusta National, TPC at Sawgrass, St. Andrews. They're all here and more. Each turn takes you to a special place and the memories of great shots you've seen in tournaments played around the world. You can travel the globe and spend a fortune in airfare and greens fees or you can tee off here and see the world from Myrtle Beach. This is a course you will never forget and a "Must Play" for golf trips to MB. Come early on Wednesday and play this gem ... and don't forget your camera!

Accolades:

- King's North Named "South Carolina's 1997 Course of the Year" by the National Golf Course Owners Association
- "America's Top 10" - Golf Digest, New Upscale Courses
- "Top 50 For Women" (Willbrook Plantation) by Golf For Women Magazine. #25 in the U.S. for 2005
- International World Tour Golf Links nominated "National Course of the Year" - 2004

Round up your friends and experience the "Golf Capital of the World".

The Myrtle Beach area offers more than 90 golf courses, some of the best beaches on the East Coast, an endless variety of dining, and nightlife activities sure to please all visitors.

Late March temperatures average upper 60's - low 70's and offer prime spring-time course playing conditions.

Although many perceive Myrtle Beach as a destination for inexpensive golf packages, premier courses at prime weather times like late March often carry a $100+ green fee per round. For this event, we have decided to play great courses at a great time of the year to assure a spectacular Myrtle Beach experience for you.

You will stay at an ocean-front hotel, play some of the best courses in the area, and complete your experience with an all-you-can-eat seafood buffet and awards ceremony.

Our goal is to make this trip one you make each spring to start off your golf season.
